

Internationella Engelska Skolan in Lund requires a teacher for years 4 –5

Our brand new school in Lund is a part of Internationella Engelska Skolan i Sverige AB (IES). We are a growing organization with twenty schools throughout Sweden.

We are now looking for

- An English speaking teacher in juniors school who can teach Mathematics, Science and ELL. Teacher's certificate from your home country is required. If you are also qualified to teach arts, music, home economics or physical education it will be to your advantage

Internationella Engelska Skolans ethos has proven stable and successful

- English is taught in an international setting.
- We follow the Swedish curriculum and time plan.
- Committed and certified teachers “go the extra mile”.
- Performance-based learning motivates students to reach their full potential. We give clear and regular feed-back to students and parents about both social and academic progress.
- We leave no child behind but give extra help where and when needed.
- Through “tough love” students learn manners, behavior, respect and responsibility.
- Care and guidance give a calm and safe learning environment
- We focus on that which students need to do in order to be successful.

Are you the committed teacher we are looking for to help us maintain our high educational standards? We are looking for people who are willing to “pull up their sleeves” and help out wherever necessary, in order to get all aspects of the school to work well. You will be a part of a team of multicultural, international teachers and staff, whose working language is English. In communication with students and parents, however, you will need to be able to use both English and Swedish.

For more information see www.engelska.se.

Send your application and résumé directly to sophie.hagerklint@lund.engelska.se as soon as possible but no later than the 24th of May. Interviews will be held as applications arrive.

For further information please contact the principal Mr. Per Ola Olsson at perola.olsson@engelska.se or 0736-619823 or call the school secretary Ms. Sophie Hägerklint 0736-619858

Employments will start on August 1st 2013, with some earlier meetings before the summer holiday.

About Internationella Engelska Skolan

Internationella Engelska Skolan is a leading independent school group (friskola), reaching academic results far above average. It was founded in 1993 by Ms. Barbara Bergstrom, a science teacher originally from the US. In 2009, she received the award "Entrepreneur of the year in Sweden".

More than 13 000 students are enrolled in our 19 schools around the country, mainly grades 4-9.

IES is the largest free school organization in "Grundskolan", with six of the ten major free schools in Sweden.

The company has a turnover of more than one billion SEK (2012-13) and around 1,500 members of staff. It is in a phase of rapid expansion, also abroad. More about the company, its schools and what we stand for can be found at www.engelska.se
